'A Fairytale of Harmony' a suite by Karen Asatrian

In a world often characterized by hustle and disharmony, artists Karen Asatrian (Piano) and Andrej Prozorov (Soprano Saxophone) illuminate with their suite "A Fairytale of Harmony," casting a enchanting glow. The duo transports listeners into a magical realm of connection, creating an atmosphere permeated with harmonic beauty.

Composed by Karen Asatrian, the suite reveals a profound connection to his classical training, skillfully weaving themes from his existing repertoire with new compositions. The two share an intuitive understanding, and Asatrian's empathetic accompanying voice adds another dimension to their music.

Their instruments conjure a lyrically buoyant soundscape that touches hearts and enchants the senses. Prozorov's soprano saxophone gracefully floats above Asatrian's sensitive piano playing, creating a lyrical grace that never descends into excessive notes. The collaboration between the two artists is marked by an intimate connection, as if they communicate telepathically.

The suite "A Fairytale of Harmony" transports the listener into a fairytale world. One feels as if in an enchanted forest, where the melodies of the music dance like flying creatures between the treetops, sharing their enchanting musical secrets. This composition generates a stimulating blend of contemplation and refreshing lightness, infused with an affirming cheerfulness.

In this suite, Asatrian's Armenian roots and Prozorov's Ukrainian background merge into a unique sonic fusion. This harmonious interplay creates a joyful and harmonious counterpoint in a world often marked by discord. It is truly a testament to the transcendent power of music, offering a glimpse of how beautiful reconciliation could be. It is an experience not to be missed, proving that music is a universal language that connects people around the world.
